SATURDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 31, 1864

1864

As we write the days of the old year are drawing to a close, and this item will catch the eye of many readers, and be read by the light of its last sunrise. The clear cold air of December will melt into January to night while many sleep, and the New Year will be born in midnight stillness as the most of us are wrapped in unconsciousness lost in the land of dreams. Time in its flight leaves the years behind us and we scarcely miss them. Childhood counts each one an age, youth gilds the seasons with sunny pleasures as they go gliding by, manhood and womanhood become the earnest occupants of time while age looks back upon the cycles that have flown, and wonders to find them gone.

History has been written by the hand of Time, during the rapid flight of '64, that will remain imprinted on the storied page until Time's flight shall end. It has been a memorable year, and names have become historic—names of men and of battle fields—for during the hours of the year that is all but passed away, our nation, groaning through throes of almost mortal agony, "still lives." There is a gleam of glorious sunlight in the closing months of the brave old year, a flow of promise seems to span the heavens, that speaks to us of peace, and if the shadowy future bears the promise out, as we have faith it will, the sunrise of to-morrow will usher in what indeed will prove a happy New Year.

Patriotism

It is customary in these times for all parties to quote the sentiment that gave birth to the American revolution, and to eulogise the spirit of '76. The politician exalts it to the skies, and claims that all there is in existence left of it, is contained within the party pale that he is advocating. There is some truth in the bitter remark, "Patriotism is the last refuge of a scoundrel," but there is far more truth in the assertion that it lives in the hearts of the people, and it is there, among the cottages and homesteads of the land, more than among occupants of place and station, that it lives. While contractors are swindling the Government, politicians quarrelling about the spoils, Generals are jealous of promotion, and shoddy airs itself, flaunting its ill bred taste upon the avenues, it is among the homespun people of the country, in the rank and file of society and of the army that the Promethean fire—not stolen, but lent from Heaven—burns eternal. From there have the sacrifices come—best loved ones have been cheerfully furnished, while death has reaped his harvests on many battle fields—and even while the mourning weeds show that hearts are sorrowing, fresh reinforcements are constantly marching forth, even from these homes bereaved. There has been no limit to the sacrifices, and the rank and file, coming from the common walks of life, show not more clearly that the public pulse beats for the Union, than does the action of many of the wealthier class.

The noblest lives in the Nation have been freely given, and such names as Sedgwick, Lyon, Foot, Kearny, Wadsworth and hundreds of others, have fallen martyrs to a cause, contending for a principle, not only dear to the American people, but honored by the world. Time shows us victorious. The people have never faltered, and that we are achieving success is due, not more to force of arms, than to unity of sentiment. To-day we are victorious everywhere. War has shown us who are our Generals, and while those we expected most of have failed us—proved incapable of success, fruitless in action,—we have others that can marshal our armies in confidence and insure them victory.

The South has been fighting for an idea, and not for a principle, too proud to belong to a Nation it cannot control—too hot spirited to contend within the Union for success depending upon an institution that cannot longer dominate over the public sentiment of all the States, they rashly dared to commence war.

There was a revolution led and controlled by an aristocracy, and the voice of the people has not been heard. Now they complain that deserters outnumber their armies, that the people do not willingly fight.

Our cause succeeds because the people are with it, theirs is failing, because their people are not earnest in it, and in their failing efforts, and mutterings of discontent, we can plainly read the end. The lessons we are learning at so much expense of life and treasure must not be lost. We may come out of the conflict burthened with debt, and with widows and orphans claiming our remembrance, but still the experience will be worth the price, if we can indeed and in truth be in the future a free and united people, if our soil shall no more know the footprint of the slave, and if intelligent free labor can develope the wonderful resources of Southern as well as Northern fields. Let this be so, and soon, before the invention, wealth and enterprise of the next few generations, the national burthen of debt will melt away and be forgotten.

EDITORIAL CHANGE.—Newell, who really had brains enough to make his paper readable if he didn't have manners enough to make it decent, seems to have had difficulty in making his mantle fit as to his successor. Mrs. N has repudiated all the arrangements made by the lobbying proprietor, and turned over the types to the tender mercies of a quasi military adventurer who has distinguished himself to say the least of it, by attempting to be as smart as his immediate predecessor, and as abusive as the ambassador. We expect to hear soon that the paper is set on fire by the accumulation of wit and talent now engaged, or that the people of the Valley have thrown him up as he certainly is the most contemptible "puke" imposed on them yet.

CHAS. KRAY.—While this gentleman is certainly an admirable actor it is still true that at many times his delivery is so rapid as to be incoherent. The beauty of very many passages of both Hamlet and Macbeth was marred by a first utterance that left no chance to comprehend much less appreciate the sentiment.

Lieutenant O. Nourtainge writes about theatricals, and as he is selecting parts for different editors to perform, we would suggest for his own part "The Fool of the Family"—that is, unless his family contains a bigger fool than himself, which we are inclined to doubt.

Seventy-five bounty jumpers were paraded through Washington a few days ago, to the tune of the rogue's march.

The official majority for the Union ticket in the State of Maryland is 7 432.

Accounts from Aleppo in Syria state that the cotton crop in that neighborhood is ten times more abundant this year than that of the year 1861, and that it will supply 3,000 bales the present season.

It is estimated that during the past eight months 10,000 refugees have arrived at Memphis, 400 of whom have been sent to Cairo. Of these received at Memphis, 1,000 average the age of 11 and 400 under.

One of the latest sensations of England is preaching in theatres when not being carried on in fire houses every Sunday. The preachers are sensational, and it seems to be a taking and paying speculation.

Mormonism is spreading in Scotland. There are now in that faith sixty seven elders, thirty priests, thirty six teachers and fifteen deacons. Eighty six converts were shipped to America during the present year.

In Yolo county, Cal., opposite Sacramento, large tracts of land are overflowed and will probably remain so for months. A large loss of stock and mules is reported to have occurred in that county during the prevalence of the late rains.

A secesh correspondent says General Lee has a pet rooster, and General Beauregard a pet is a fine milch cow which shares all his campaigns and is a most indispensable companion, his health being so delicate that he can eat little else besides milk and bread.

The President expresses a doubt whether Tennessee is in that relation to the Government which will secure the acceptance of its vote for President, and also Presidential though that is a question for the House of Representatives and not him to determine.

Capt. Collins, of the Wachusetts who served the Florida incurred the displeasure of the Government in 1862, for seizing the British schooner Mont Blanc, and taking her into Key West. At the time of the seizure the schooner was at anchor at Sand Bay, Bahama Banks, only one mile from shore.

The San Francisco Bulletin has a little Sea Island cotton seed received from Honolulu which is used as at the service of any gentleman desirous of making a few experiments in planting the same in order to test the adaptability of soil and climate, with a view to a more extensive cultivation of these crops in the future.

The Louisville Journal states that since the first of January last 2,918 deserters have been received at the military prison in that city nearly all of whom have taken the oath of allegiance to the United States, and given parole to remain north of the Ohio river during the war. The number received during the month of September, was 441.

Two wealthy young men of Farmington, New York, stepped over into Canada just before the 6th of September, to await the eventualities of the draft. One of them was drawn and set about hiring a Canadian substitute. He engaged his man, and was ready to leave with him when the authorities, who had been apprised of the proceedings, arrested him on the charge of violating their law against foreign enlistments. He was tried, found guilty, and sentenced to a term of eighteen years imprisonment.

The colors of the sky at particular times afford wonderful good guidance. Not only does a rosy sunset presage fair weather, but there are other tints which speak with equal clearness and accuracy. A bright yellow sky in the evening indicates wind, a pale yellow, wet, a neutral gray color constitutes a favorable sign in the evening, an unfavorable one in the morning. The clouds, again, are full of meaning in themselves. If their forms are soft, undefined and feathery, the weather will be fine. If the edges are hard, sharp and definite, it will be foul. Generally speaking, any deep unusual hues betoken wind or rain, while the more quiet and delicate tints bespeak fair weather. Simple as these maxims are, the British Board of Trade has thought fit to publish them for the use of sea faring men.

BATTLE OF THE MARAIS DES CYGNES.—The following is from the correspondence of the St. Louis News:

Marais des Cygnes—beautiful name to be associated with so bloody a battle. "Lake of the Swans" is the Indian name of this north western branch of the Osage, though the text does not admit of so free a translation. The name seems beautifully appropriate. The Marais des Cygnes is but a natural drain of a lovely prairie plateau, covered over with the most lovely lakes. Swans in great numbers, grace these waters in the fall, and hence the name Marais des Cygnes.

It was there that Pleasanton fought that decisive battle which saved Missouri to the loyal cause in the late election, and destroyed forever Sterling Price's prestige in Missouri. The latter is gone forever, and if the Government at Washington has any gratitude—and we believe it has, for Lincoln is a man of heart—he will remember the brave Pleasanton and the officers who were with him and reward them as they deserve.

We have it from eye witnesses, that no officers of his rank ever ported so much as Pleasanton. He rode fearlessly along his front giving orders and seeing amid a shower of bullets, that they were obeyed. A certain battery was annoying. To an officer (we shall not name him) he said: 'Charge that battery and take it.' Dashing to another point of peril and returning he found the order not obeyed. 'Why is that battery not charged, sir?' exclaimed Pleasanton. Receiving the answer of an imbecile, he ordered the surrender of his sword and the officer to be instantly arrested.

Next, turning to Colonel Catherwood, he ordered him to take the battery. 'I'll try, sir,' was the brave reply. Colonel Catherwood did 'try.' He took the battery, piercing the rebel gunners at their cannon. Lundy's Lane furnished no higher evidence of heroism and bravery than Colonel Catherwood exhibited on this occasion. Let our true soldiers—all is embodied in that—be remembered and be rewarded.

THE CAPITAL LIST.—Yesterday as an officer of Washington Territory was proceeding to the steamer en route for Washington, he was arrested on a capias for a debt contracted in Washington Territory. This however is a small part of the joke. The arrest was made on a bill of wood or lumber to the amount of $200 which of course was liable in Washington Territory to be liquidated by greenbacks. But our benign prudence allows the creditor to arrest the debtor for $200 in gold, or for an amount considerably over a hundred per cent more than the legal liability. The gentleman is obliged to obtain bonds for this sum and so further involved into the expense of $10, all of which tells largely in favor of Victoria as affording especial facilities for travelers. We shall recur to the matter in more detail, but in the meantime, would suggest that our Export should be more definitely defined. For instance a part in which everything thirsty enters is free but everything that attempts to escape is placed in 'bond.'—British Colonist.

GERMANY.—In the year 1863 says an exchange the Liberals of Germany had a successful revolution organized the uprising of the imperial and royal tyrants of that suffering country. Inflamed by a natural love of freedom they threw off the promises of their sovereigns to govern according with popular principles, the triumph the people granted their opponents a cessation of hostilities. In consequence of this unwise step Germany is to-day groaning under the rule of despotism. The result of an untimely cessation of hostilities in the United States will be equally disastrous.

HOMICIDE AND WHISKY.—The present Nemesis (animal) of the Mountaineer is the only modern edition of Jack the Giant Killer extant, as he slew two deserters but then says he was too elevated much himself to be held accountable for it.

GOLDEN LYRE DRAMATIC COMPANY.—This stupendous work of art still in the process having been of such great interest as to draw crowds to the Music Hall with the main object of which is to give the public a correct idea of the manner in which the Golden Lyre is played by the Misses [illegible] and Miss [illegible] the latter of whom is justly celebrated as the best performer on the harp in the world. REFRESHING TO OREGONIANS.—The customs of this country are so strangely perverse to the habit of giving Oregon any credit, in any thing, that it becomes quite refreshing to Oregonians, to be able to pick up a London Illustrated print and find recorded therein a handsome view of a lovely city, and have it credited to Oregon. But upon second sight, a peculiarity for which our people are particularly noted, when the name PETAL, OREGON, appears, the idea "to the manor born" will exclaim: "Where the d—l is Petau?" Never heard of it before!" The accompanying paragraph illustrates the picture, which illustrates the paper, the product of some illustrious mind, undoubtedly: "Petau, Oregon.—Time was when the name of Oregon created a fierce excitement in the minds of English and American. In many respects it is not a place for either nation to rave much about. The country, even west of the Rocky Mountains, is broken with towering hills, deep ravines, and sunken streams, from which the traveler cannot drink a drop to allay his burning thirst; and the soil is either sand, in which he sinks at every step, or a black, angular stone, over which he falls with bleeding feet. The air feels like the breath of a sirocco, the tongue becomes parched and weary, and the eyes, mouth and nose are incessantly assailed by the fine pulverized lava, which rises from the ground with the least breath of air. Some parts of Oregon however, are extremely rich in picturesque beauty. Petau, on the Columbia river, is situated amid scenery of a superior order." Thus says the London Illustrated News of the World, of date November 5th. The supreme ridiculousness of the paragraph can hardly be understood for want of an actual "Petau" to refer to. Could the writer have understood the true course of events transpiring among us, the opinion that Oregon was not a place for either nation to care much about, would meet with a slight modification, and he would be compelled to admit not only that we "are extremely rich in picturesque beauty," but that we have all other requisites, of superior climate, bountiful production of soil, wealth of minerals, and enjoy the blessings attendant upon us as a people.

A COUNCILMAN'S TURN OUT.—Councilman Bennett dotes on a pair of fine trotters and delights in a comfortable and elegant "turn out" generally. He holds the ribbons with grace, and drives through town with great eclat, when he attempts it. There was a magnificent carriage came for somebody by the last steamer, and yesterday we saw it maneuvering the streets, with nine inside, beside the coachman with his "four" in hand. It whirled over the smooth places and splattered through the sticky ones, and we wondered when it was that ventured their precious lives and "immaculate linen," to say nothing of sundry bones and membranes, in an attempt to fathom mud deeper than "Holmes' Hole" with carriage wheels, but came to find out the nine inside were each a Councilman or a substantial citizen of the city, who were thus on a perambulating tour "seeking out many inventions" that may result in good. The worthy "members" on that ride have seen the streets—which is considerable, and have been bumped and splattered through Front street on elliptic springs, which is considerable more. We were glad to notice the worthy chairman of the streets committee occupied a seat in a very advantageous position to tally the bumps, and that the popular member who was proprietor of the turn out braved the elements—(that means mud!) with all the rest, by having hitched up his best team to his new coach, for this special expedition, which we account for by knowing that he is particularly interested in street navigation. We hope that the experience of the party will result in a huge disgust at Portland mud holes, and bring us "mended ways," if it does not succeed in establishing a "Trotting Park" both of which are consummations devoutly to be wished.

MUSTERED.—The volunteers of this county were marched to the armory on Front street, lately occupied by Company A, of the State Militia, and inspected and mustered into the service of the United States yesterday. They were passed singly before Surgeon Watkins for examination, and next to Lieut. Kapus for muster, and sworn with great solemnity in the usual oaths, to support and protect the government, which was done in a positive manner, and with a will by all. The first enrolment of the county bounty, amounting in the aggregate to $928 00, was then tendered by Mr. H. C. Coulson, County Clerk. The Company was designated Company D, 1st Regiment Oregon Infantry, with the following officers, appointed by Governor Gibbs: Capt. W. S. Powell; 1st Lieut. — Kerns; 2d Lieut. C. H. Hill.

"THE LADY OF THE LAKE."—This popular drama will be reproduced at Willamette Theatre, this evening. The particular star for the patronage of our citizens, and one most deservedly popular with us, Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne, assumes the part of Blanche of Devon, which she rendered in most handsome style last evening. Under whatever circumstance, no matter how much we may disagree with others in relation to the management and plays produced at our only Theatre, we shall ever esteem it a pleasure to render Mrs. Hayne favorable mention, as we appreciate her excellence, and have so far failed to witness the performance of an actress on our boards that can boast more than her equal.

A ROCHESTER CRACKER MACHINE.—We happened in at the Oregon Bakery of Messrs. Opitz, Sharf & Co., yesterday, and witnessed the workings of their new cracker machine, a very handsome invention purchased by Mr. Sharf, while at Rochester, New York, on his recent visit to the East. It works magnificently, fully supplying the two large ovens of the establishment with prepared "dough" which comes forth in any desired shape for crackers. It is the only machine of the pattern in the State, and there is but one other of any kind in Oregon, which is that used by G. T. Myers & Co. of the Eagle Bakery in this city.

RECRUITING.—The Recruiting Service in this county will be kept up for a few days by Lieut. E. O. McCown, of Clackamas county, and Lieut. J. M. Gale, of Clatsop county, who have seven of eight men to raise to fill up their company, which will be mustered in this city as soon as the number is attained. The same office and place of rendezvous occupied by Capt. Howell, is being used by them.

LADIES' CHRISTIAN COMMISSION.—Nett proceeds of the Fair on Tuesday and Wednesday, 20th and 21st of December, was $1,717 25 in coin and $141 00 in currency. For membership and other sources prior to the Fair, $67 00. Whole amount, $1,784 25 in coin and $141 00 in currency.

MARY A. HAWKINS, Treasurer.

SALE OF ENGRAVINGS.—A very desirable lot of engravings will be disposed of at auction, by Mr. A. B. Richardson this morning, at his regular sale, corner of Oak and Front streets. They compose a handsome assortment, and will most likely "go off" cheaply.

CLOSING DAY.—A large number of prominent business firms have signified their intention to close doors on Monday next in honor of the advent of 1865. The movement is a right one, and we hope will be generally concurred in. On that day the Printers will cease labor and no paper will be issued from this office on Tuesday morning.

HOLIDAY RAFFLE.—The holiday raffle of Mr. J. W. J. Pierson will come off at the Agency of Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines, corner of Front and Washington street, this evening at 7 o'clock. All parties interested are advised that they should be there promptly. A few chances are left to be raffled for before the great event transpires.

FOR THE DALLES.—Company D, Oregon Infantry, Capt. W. S. Powell, leave this city to-day by the steamer Wilson G. Hunt, for Fort Dalles where they will enter the service as garrison. We wish them every success—officers and privates—in the new life they have chosen, and we know they will be proven a worthy company in any capacity.

ORDINANCE No. 164.—As being of much importance to the tax payers of the city we refer their attention to Ordinance No. 164, published in another column.

NOTARY PUBLIC,

DRY GOODS.—To whom it may Concern, we would say, that we know of no store in which they can sell Clothing, or be had on better terms than at the Store of Mr. J. WILSON, on Front street. We have been there, and have been so well pleased that we intend to go again. See Advertisement.—Journal, N. Y. Sth. n23-dawfd

The Lungs are the Great Laboratory of the Human System.—When once destroyed they never can be made sound again. We should remove the first cause which leads to their destruction. When signs of burning, it is indicated by a cough or pain in the chest, or difficulty of breathing. Now, Allen's Lung Balsam will check the severe symptoms at once, if it is used in time, and prevent fatal Consumption.

We tender to the aged

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effect. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits. For dyspepsia, oppression after eating, biliousness, bilious colic, wind cholic, spasms of the stomach, sick or nervous head-ache, chills and fever, tremens, prostration and all the complaints special to the softer sex, the Bitters are earnestly recommended by thousands who have witnessed their superior efficacy in such cases. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere. nov 24dw

Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock AND IODINE ALTERATIVE is the only remedy for invigorating a debilitated and broken down constitution.—Persons of scrofulous habit, suffering from impure blood, nervous trembling, impaired digestion, liver disease, lost vitality, should give this great blood purifier a trial. All rheumatic diseases, constitutional complaints and organic affections are radically cured by a steady use of this medicine. oct19d3m

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of Checking a Cough or "SLIGHT COLD" in its first stage, that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers, should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken on occasion requisite.

The Grave of the Year.

The following popular poem was first written for the New York Commercial Advertiser in 1816, by one Gimore, and published several times since at the recurrence of this season:

LINES WRITTEN FOR THE THIRTY-FIRST OF DECEMBER.

Be composed every toil, and each turbulent motion,
That enerves the heart in life's tempestuous snares:
And the hour that invites to the calmest devotion,
Undisturbed by regrets—unencumbered with cares.
How cheerless the late blooming pride of creation!
Weary Time seems to pause in his rapid career,
And, fatigued with the work of his own desolation,
Looks behind with a smile—on the grave of the year.

Hark! the wind whistles coldly—the shadows are closing
That enwrap its broad path in the mantle of night;
While pleasure's gay song are in mirth ceasing,
Undismay'd at the wreck that have numbered his flight.
From yon ample where Fashion's splendor is tapers are lighted,
Her votaries in crowds decked with garlands appear
And (as yet their warm hopes know no spectres affrighted)
Assemble to dance 'round—the grave of the year.

Oh, I hate the stale cup which the fiddlers have tasted—
When I think on the ills of life's comfortless day!
How the flowers of my childhood their recline have wasted,
And the friends of my youth have been stolen away!
They think not how fruitless the warmest endeavor,
To recall the kind moments, neglected when near—
When the hours that oblivion has cancelled forever,
Are interred by her hand in—the grave of the year.

Since the last solemn reign of this day of reflection,
What throngs have relinquished life's vanishing breath!
How many have shed their last tear of dejection,
And closed the dim eye in the dark'ness of death!
How many have sudden their pilgrimage ended,
Beneath the low pall that envelopes their bier!
Or to death's lonesome valley have gently descended,
And make their cold beds with—the grave of the year!

'Tis the year that so late, its new beauties disclosing,
Rose bright on the happy, the careless and gay,
Whereon their pillow of dust are reposing,
Where the sod presses damp on their bosoms of clay.
Then, talk not of bliss, while her smile is expiring,
Disappointment still drowns it in misery's tear;
Reflect, and be wise—for the day is retiring,
And to-morrow will dawn on—the grave of the year.

Yet awhile—and no seasons around us will flourish,
But silence for ever her dark mansion prepares;
Where beauty no longer her roses shall nourish,
Of the lily o'ergrown the wan cheek of despair;
But the eye shall with luster unfading be brightened,
When it wakes to true bliss in yon orient sphere;
By sunbeams of splendor immortal enlightened,
Which no more shall in gloom close—the grave of a year.

WEEKLY COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

PORTLAND, December 30, 1864.

The demand for produce during the week has been mainly for shipment to Victoria and Puget Sound, and the articles most called for are Oats and Wheat. The schooner Comly is now loading at Ainsley's wharf for the above destination.

Large shipments to California are regular and uninterrupted, consisting mainly of apples per steamship, which sell readily in San Francisco at from $2 50 to $3 75 ₰ box. Less perishable articles, such as corn and feed, are shipped per barks, and the Reindeer, which is at present the only vessel loading for San Francisco, will convey a full cargo.

There has been some inquiry for potatoes, for Victoria, but prices remain unchanged.

The following are prices offered for domestic produce by the city dealer to-day:

FLOUR—Imperial $10 ₰ bbl.; Standard Mills $10; other brands, $7 50@9; Buckwheat $5 ₰ cwt.

GRAIN—Wheat $1 45@1 50 ₰ bush.; Oats 72c.; Barley 3c ₰ lb.

BEANS—Small White 3½c.; White Pea 4c; Red 2c.

APPLES—Ranging from $1 to $1 50 ₰ bush.

EGGS—Per doz. 37½@40c for fresh.

POTATOES—Best quality Kidneys $1 25 ₰ bush.; other varieties $1 50.

HAY—Sales noted at from $25 to $28 ₰ ton.

Wholesale Prices.

PORTLAND, Dec. 30, 1864.

Navigation remains closed above the Dalles on the Columbia, and the high water above the Falls on the Willamette, has a tendency to check business, but to-day the river appears to be at a stand, and with favorable weather not many days will elapse before trade can be resumed with its usual activity.

Wholesale transactions have been limited to a certain extent, consequent upon the interruption with communication to the interior.

Our State manufactories begin to be appreciated in the sister State of California, and elsewhere, and large cases of woolen goods are shipped below by every steamer. Messrs. Ricet, Weil & Co., agents in this city for the Willamette Woolen Manufacturing Company, have given us the quotations below, on those manufactures at wholesale.

We would allow upon our wholesale dealers the propriety of establishing a Board of Trade, for the regulation of business transactions, and the establishment of a rate for jobbing, etc., of more uniformity. Many thousands of dollars are annually expended in San Francisco, from the upper towns of this Valley, which could be secured to Portland, by having a direct understanding with interior dealers.

FLOUR—Imperial $10 ₰ bbl.; Standard $10.; country brands $8@9.

MILL FEED—Bran and Shorts $25 ₰ ton; Middlings, $30 ₰ ton.

BACON—Old 16½@17c.

LARD—10 lb cans at 16c; in bulk 14c.

WILLAMETTE WOOLEN GOODS—Blankets, grey, $6 62½@7 12½; white, $7 62½@8 62½; Tweeds 81@86; Flannels 46@56; Cassimeres $1 02½@1 40.

POWDER—At 70c for 10 cans; 80c half-lb cans; blasting $3 ₰ keg of 25 lbs.

COTTON GOODS—Bro. Sheeting, best, 35@37½; ordinary, 29@33½. Bleached do. 30 inch, 39@42; do. 33 in., 29@33; do. 36 in., 39@35; do. 10-4, 62½; Bro. Drills, 37½. Denims, 30@32. Ticking, 28@30. Linsey, 35.—Prints—Merrimac, 20@22; Cochheo, 18@21; Fancy, 17@19. Canton Flannel, 37@42.

SYRUPS—E. B., ₰ gallon, 5-gall kgs from 65 to 70 cts. E. B., 8-gall, 62½. Heavy Golden 70@75c.

SALT—Liverpool fine, ₰ ton $40; Carmen Island, $30@ 35 ₰ ton.

SOAP—Colgate, ₰ lb. 14½; Castile, 25@37½; Higgins's, ₰ box $1 90@2 10; Fay's, 9.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

OR PROTECTED

Solution of Protoxide of Iron,

Has been used with Great Success in Curing

DYSPEPSIA,

Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Scrofula, Diseases arising and Consumptive Tend's, Disordered State of the Blood, Female Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, Bowel Affections, the Prostrating effects of Lead or Mercury,

GENERAL DEBILITY,

and all Diseases in which we require a

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROPRIETOR HAS NUMEROUS AND IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS, setting forth the claims to public confidence that the Peruvian Syrup possesses, and which he will publish from time to time, but deems it unnecessary to crowd his advertisement with them at present, preferring to refer the reader to the pamphlets which can be obtained of the Agents, and to recommend it to the attention of the public.

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure is a perfect Protoxide of Iron in a state to be easily assimilated with the fluids and tissues of the human system. The following are a few of the many thousands who will testify to the truth and efficacy of the Syrup in curing Dyspepsia:

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned, having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public:

Rev. JOHN PIERPONT, THOMAS C. AMORY,
THOMAS A. DEXTER, PETER HARVEY,
SAM. KENDALL, M. D., JAMES C. DUNN,
SAMUEL MAY, Rev. THOS. WHITEMORE.

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the Medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by every one of every other remedy used to cure, and that it contains in solution all of these properties without further evidence, has been abundantly established.

In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by combination in a way devised exclusively by myself, and this assertion may replace all the puffing certificates and tartarites, of the Materia Medica.

A. A. HAYES, M. D.
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to overestimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical physicians and chemists have given its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

LIVER, HEART,
KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS and GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Not withstanding the most marked abilities which have been developed in its favor, it is recommended as useless, until Dr. Henry Anderson, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This is considered impossible by the scientific world, but after full specifications of his discovery from Rt. R. H. Clifton of Liverpool, and Prof. Booth, U.S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and pronounced to present the science "American Medical Monthly" July 61, 1862, page 16.

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Humors, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is unrivaled by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price, $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr. H. Anderson & Co., Physicians and Chemists, New York.

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for healing diseases of the lungs. It equalizes expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus. CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD. Heals the inflamed parts, gives strength to the digestive organs, brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction in the most confirmed cases of CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED SURE to produce expectoration where the disease will admit, and relief in the most distressing cases, by one dose. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for removing disease. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.
